Lovers of ingenuitie
health and happiness
To think ofy Shewes of sollace of drinck of drinck and of terror of Eternity;

Should teach our eyes to weep faster than might our fingers to play, and sit us sooner with a sigh: than the Musitian with a song. Man is a busy creature full of plots, devices and designs and his heart as if foales eyes wanders to y^e ends of earth: while death (with arrow to measure out thaire graves) gal lops about y^e world, and from thaire vanitys puffs away mor talls to thaire first nothing.

And yet there is a doore of hope though in y^e midst of y^e vaily of act enough to reach for a happy sing
g. Finally y^e f^l heart is a home, soules in her midde land, eyes, can but love as she loves.

The printing off of this in Character, but this gentleman whom I have just mentioned by my, and therefore I think I may say this piece is without parallel. you had it done in proof of excellency of Contrivtions would have laid it all in 5th part of this paper, and thus I affirm that he that has very little knowledge in 5 art may by 5 use of this book soon become perfectly and write it swiftly.

As for 5 utility thereof in other parts of 5 world where the Bible is not suffered I may say that here the gospel is plain to the Christian: but to let up the secrets of a Character; from 5 inspection of a paper and I could tell you: it brings

4
glad tidings to y^e ears and is a Lanthorn of light to the eyes: a vertuous recreation for the minde wherin the soule may finde a treasury of wis: dom and knowledge but I need say no more in the vindication of this art where the paines it self is both profit and pleasure and the very work is wages.

I know that some doe not alov of the Psalms: and what of that? the royall Sun, that every day re:
leives this poore infe: rior earth has not the less of light, nor can a dung hill on which he

throw as his brighter rays detract a beame from his glory Gods word requires not the help of mans unworthy witt:
nor does divinity need
a dross of curiosity.

If any should ask why I writ them it was because I would not my self be idle: if why I printed them, because I would have others
well imployed
was cannot without industry, have the reward of ingenuity no laarnecking is got without labour.

That I have subscribed
your names, was added help me out with the work but rather to register your worth and tell the world how much I honour your vertues I feare not here the carping of the critick
nor the envy of the ignorant, for while I am doing good I am a little raised above this ding-hill earth: and methinks my unsupported feete dance measures on light waves, therefore as I care for no praise so I feare no reproach but am as willing to - suffer the one : as unworthy to inherit the other

Your devoted Servant
Jeremiah Rich.

The image shows a document with a table-like structure. It has several vertical columns separated by thick black lines. The text is handwritten in a cursive script, possibly from a historical period. The document appears to be a ledger or account book, with entries that could be numbers or words. The image is very noisy and has high contrast, making it difficult to read the specific content.

The image shows a document page with a table-like structure. The page is divided into several vertical columns by thick black lines. The text is extremely dense and heavily obscured by noise, appearing as a series of black and white speckles and blotches. The layout suggests a structured table with multiple rows and columns of data. The overall appearance is that of a heavily degraded or noisy scan of a document, possibly a ledger or account book.
